Ample time will be given for sight seeing at the fort which is one of the most interesting historical places on the lake. This will be the best excursion of the season and deserves a large crowd.

SIREN AND SONS.

Viceroy Curzon has announced his intention to return to India.

P. L. Schmitt, founder and publisher of many German newspapers in the United States, is eighty years old.

With the death of F. X. E. Mansion it is believed there is but one survivor of the De Long arctic expedition, Rear Admiral Melville.

Captain Buchanan, who is in command of the American built Turkish cruiser Medjidieh, has accepted a commission in the Turkish navy.

Yi Yong Ik, the chief of the Korean government, who controls the army and finances of that kingdom, was formerly a cooly and was raised to high rank by the late empress of Korea.

Prince Cetewayo, grandson of the famous Zulu king who was captured by the British in South Africa twenty-two years ago, is a student in London, devoting much of his time to law and history.

Professor W. W. Campbell, director of the Lick observatory in California, has been elected a foreign member of the Societa degli Spettroscopisti Italiani. This society consists of thirty Italian members and thirty foreigners.

Judge George W. DeCamp, at one time the most celebrated criminal lawyer in Pennsylvania, is still living at Emporia, Kan., and is one of the wealthiest men in the state. He acted as "best man" at the wedding of James G. Blaine.

William H. Moody, secretary of the navy, will practice law in Boston after the expiration of his term of office on March 4, 1905. He will be associated with E. W. Burdett, J. Otis Wardell, C. Snow and another man whose name has not been given out.

The richest baby in the world is said to be the little son of the late Harold Brown of Providence, R. I. The death within a few days of each other of his father and his uncle left this youngster the possessor of a fortune which is estimated at between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

Madge Lessing is playing Della Fox's old role with De Wolfe Hopper in "Wang."

A play was recently produced in London with the alliterative title, "The Sadducee and the Sinner."

Fred Truesdell, leading man with Mrs. Langtry during her recent tour, is the son of the well known Washington capitalist.

Arthur Bourchier has confessed to the authorship of the version of "La Robe Rouge" now being played at the Garrick theater, London.

"Checkers" proved to be one of the most refreshing plays of the season. Its charm did not lie in the drawing, but in the fact that the piece was native to American soil.

Extensive preparations are being made for the production of a spectacle, "Louisiana," in St. Louis during the exposition in Delmar gardens. The piece will have historical and musical features.

Kirk La Shelle, manager of "The Earl of Pawtucket," "Checkers," "The Virginian" and other plays, has made the announcement that he probably will not have any new productions next season.

TALES OF CITIES.

Boston during the past year proved the best recruiting ground for the naval service of any of the large cities.

An antitragic movement is making considerable headway in Montreal. Members of the league pledge their solemn word of honor not to accept nor to offer to others any intoxicating liquors in any public bar, hotel or club.

There were forty applications for positions in the fire department of New Haven, Conn., and only eleven met the requirements. Nine failed on the mental examination and sixteen on the physical, and four would not take the latter.

One voting machine was used in the late municipal election in Chicago and registered twenty votes in one minute and forty seconds after the polls were opened. It was the first time such a machine had been used in that city, and its results were pronounced good.
